The World Luxury Hotel Awards is about congratulating hotels that have taken the extra step with regards to their facilities and service excellence and as such differentiated themselves from ‘good hotels’ to ‘exceptional hotels’. There is enormous competition in the Luxury hotel sector. The standards are constantly being raised to almost unprecedented levels of luxury and service. Good is no longer acceptable. Only the absolute best has now become the requirement for the seasoned Luxury Traveller said Marinique de Wet, Director of WLHA.

Covered by France24 the World Luxury Hotel Award’s official media partner, the event included a 6 course gala dinner followed by top entertainment and presentation of coveted Awards. Throughout the evening category winners and finalists were unveiled with live cultural entertainment by local traditional Thai dancers and singers.

Hotels were recognized on a country, continent and global basis and the awards account for 50 categories in the luxury hotel industry and include amongst others Luxury Private Island Resorts, Casino Hotels, City Hotels, and Lodges. The awards were presented to almost 144 hotels around the world and Park Hyatt Hyderabad proudly walked away with the “Best New Luxury Hotel in the Country”.

Mr.Khun Surapol Svetasreni, Governor – Tourism of Thailand commented: I firmly believe that a World Luxury Hotel Awards is the highest accolade that a hotel can receive because it says more about the property than any brochure can communicate, any picture can portray and any personal testimonial can express. Despite the global economic problems, our winners have survived and even thrived. They have seen challenges as opportunities and are leading the way as industry leaders. You make us proud to be in this challenging but rewarding industry. We are honoured to receive this award as it is an inspiration to the nominees to raise their levels of service excellence in order to feel comfortable in competing on an international level and to set a benchmark for themselves.” says Sven Hoffmeyer, General Manager at Park Hyatt Hyderabad. Winners and finalists were selected from votes cast by guests, travel industry delegates, tour operators or independent travel consultants.
